

The Institute for Professionalism & Ethical Practice
Faculty Fellows Humanism Series*
Cultivating Humanism: Nurturing a Culture for Safe, Compassionate Healthcare

Upcoming Events

Photo: Adrian Balea, Romania via Pixabay

- November 2017 Humanistic Approaches to the International / Immigrant Patient
Eman Ansari, MD, MPH - Department of Medicine, Division of Emergency Medicine
- January 2018 Counteracting Burnout: Humanistic Strategies to Support Clinician Resilience
Emily Jean Davidson, MD, MPH - Department of Medicine, Division of General Pediatrics, Division of Developmental Medicine; Jamie Lee Palaganas Heath MD - Pediatric Neurohospitalist, Assistant Inpatient Director, Department of Neurology; Arnold Sansevere, MD - Department of Neurology, Division of Epilepsy
- March 2018 Humanism and Resilience: Embracing the Arts
Lisa M. Wong, MD - Associate Director, Arts & Humanities @ Harvard Medical School; Jessica Finch - BCH art therapist; Brian Jantz - BCH music therapist
- April 2018 Humanism and Resilience: Rehearsing Challenging Situations through Role Play
Catherine E. Perron, MD - Department of Medicine, Division of Emergency Medicine
- May 2018 Humanistic Strategies for Caring for the Undocumented and Dreamers
Martha Cesena, MD - Department of Psychiatry

*The Faculty Fellows Humanism Series is designed to nurture values and to foster humanistic organizational cultures and learning environments. The series is a project of the Boston Children's Hospital Institute for Professionalism & Ethical Practice/ Harvard Faculty Education Fellowships:

- Faculty Education Fellowship in Medical Humanism and Professionalism
- Faculty Fellowship for Leaders in Collaborative and Humanistic Interprofessional Education

The Faculty Fellowships were supported, in part, by a multi-institutional grant from the Josiah Macy, Jr. Foundation – William Branch, Jr, MD, MACP is national PI; Elizabeth A. Rider, MSW, MD is site PI and Fellowship Director.

Questions? Please contact Emma Forman at emma.forman@childrens.harvard.edu or (617) 355-5021.